

Art Display At Library

A group of paintings by Bernice Wurst is currently on exhibit at the Fanwood Memorial Library of Fanwood, N.J. Mrs. Wurst, a resident of Scotch Plains, has shown her work in numerous national and regional exhibits, including those of the National Academy of Design in New York, the Painters and Sculptors National Show, the Hunterdon County Center of Art, and the Art Center of the Oranges. Her most recent award was the $200 Purchase Award (1971) for her painting which hangs in the Mayor's office of the National Newark and Essex Bank, South Orange.

While she works in a wide range of media and subject matter, this artist has hung in the Fanwood Memorial Library mainly landscapes in oil.

Mrs. Wurst has studied with such well known artists as Maxwell Stewart Simpson, Perry Zimmermann, Carl Berger, and Henry Gasser, and has taught painting for the art department of the Roselle Woman's Club. She is a member of the Westfield

Art Association, the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Art Association, associate member of the Allied Artists of America Center, and is listed among the Artists of New Jersey in Trenton, Washington D. C., and Ft. Lauderdale.
